

YOUNGSTOWN JURY INDICTS GARY AND STEEL COMPANIES

By the Associated Press.
Youngstown, Ohio, March 8.—The Mahoning county grand jury today ended spectacularly its investigations of the disastrous strike riots January 7 in East Youngstown by returning indictments against Elbert H. Gary, chairman of the United States Steel corporation, and against six big steel companies.
The indictments charge Mr. Gary, the corporation of which he is the head, one of its subsidiaries and four independent steel concerns with conspiring to fix the wages of labor and to fix the price of iron and steel products in Mahoning county in violation of the anti-trust laws.
"Judge Gary has been indicted individually," said County Prosecutor A. M. Henderson, "because the evidence laid before the grand jury tends to show that he is the director of the iron and steel industry in the United States."
"Combining in an unlawful trust" is the condensed charge in the indictment that names the Youngstown Sheet and Tube company, the Republic Iron and Steel company, the United States Steel corporation, the Brier Hill Steel company, the Youngstown Iron and Steel company, the Carnegie Steel company and Elbert H. Gary.
Secrecy covers the extent of the evidence in the possession of Prosecutor Henderson and the grand jury affecting the alleged agreement made between the corporation and independent companies to regulate wages and price scales.
In naming Judge Gary "as the dictator of steel" Henderson declared that he was the sole individual indicted because it was necessary for the grand jury to rely on information furnished by officials of other companies. He refused, however, to make public the names of steel men who had testified during the investigation.
The grand jury in its report to the court declared that it was unable to fix any particular cause for the riot of anarchy in East Youngstown on January 7 when several people were killed and many injured and $1,500,000 worth of property was destroyed.
Prosecutor Henderson tonight declared the trial of Mr. Gary and the six indicted corporations would be held within a month.

Outrage, Says Gary.
New York, March 8.—When informed of the indictments returned at Youngstown, Judge Elbert H. Gary today issued the following statement:
"The indictment is an outrage—a travesty."

TULSA IS SHAKEN AND MAN KILLED BY NITRO-GLYCERINE

By the Associated Press.
Tulsa, Okla., March 8.—At 5 o'clock this afternoon 600 quarts of nitro-glycerine exploded near Cleveland, Okla., thirty-five miles northwest of Tulsa, killing the driver of the wagon, Harry Hill. So great was the force of the concussion that in Tulsa that earth trembled and many people ran terrified into the streets as the frame buildings in the downtown section shook.
The driver of the wagon, who was in the employ of the Eastern Torpedo company, was blown into atoms. His heart and one finger, picked up more than one hundred yards away, was all that was found of his body. The wagon was blown into splinters and bits of horse flesh were found more than a mile distant.
A hole five feet in depth and twenty feet long was blown in the ground over which the wagon was passing. The cause of the explosion is not known.
The windshield of an automobile two hundred and fifty yards away was broken, but the driver, whose name was not known, was not injured. The explosion was to have been used in shooting oil wells in the Cleveland field.

New Wage Contract Giving Coal Miners More Pay Ratified

By the Associated Press.
New York, March 8.—After a warm debate lasting nearly six hours, the interstate joint conference of miners and operators from the soft coal fields of western Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois, representing nearly 200,000 mine workers, today adopted the new wage contract agreed upon by the sub-committee of employers and employees.
The agreement will increase the income of the mine workers in those states about fifteen million dollars during the two-year period the contract is to run, and will have an influence on the wage conferences to be held in the bituminous fields of Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Texas and other states, as the agreements there are based largely on the action taken in western Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois.
Opposition to the new scale, which will go into effect April 1, was voiced by some operators and miners. Indiana delegates refused to vote to adopt the scale. When they voted "no," John P. White, international president of the miners' union, announced that the international officers would assume the responsibility of bringing about a settlement in that state. It was said they would not have the support of the international organization.

GERMAN AND AUSTRIAN STEAMERS IN LISBON HARBOR SEIZED BY PORTUGAL

Lisbon, Portugal, and Harbor.

Portugal has requisitioned German and Austrian ships lying in its various harbors. The commander of the naval division took possession of thirty-six vessels belonging to Germans and Austrians at Lisbon. Eight German steamships lying in the harbor of St. Vincent, Cape Verde islands, were also seized by Portuguese. There are eighty German and Austrian vessels in other Portuguese ports, all of which will probably be seized by the government.

French and Germans Both Claim Successes in Fight Around Verdun Region

By the Associated Press.
Fighting of great violence between the French and German infantry has been in progress from Bethancourt northwest of Verdun, to the Meuse and east of the Meuse from the southern slopes of the Cote le Talos to the Douaumont region—battle fronts aggregating about ten miles in length. Spirited artillery duels continue along the remainder of the front about Verdun.
A continuation of the German drive northwest of Verdun is declared by Berlin to have netted the Germans French positions over a front of nearly four miles and virtually two miles in depth, and enabled them to capture fifty-eight officers and 327 men. The villages of Forges and Regneville, the heights of Raben and the Cumieres woods fell into the hands of the Germans.
The French did not give up these positions without strong resistance and suffered heavy casualties, especially along the southern fringe of the Cumieres wood.
In the Coteaux wood, which was occupied recently by the Germans, the French launched a heavy counter attack and drove the Germans out of the greater part of the position. A German attack with heavy effectiveness against the French Bethancourt lines was repulsed.
East of the Meuse the Germans have recaptured the Hardsaumont redoubt, over which there have been such heavy fighting, and in a line-straightening maneuver have made progress on a front of about five miles along the southern slopes of the Cote le Talos and the Cote du Poivre and in the Douaumont region.
In the Woevre district, southeast of Verdun, the Germans have forced the French to loosen their hold on outlying positions they held in the village of Fresnes. Here the Germans assert they captured 700 prisoners. In the Meuse hills the French artillery is counter-shelling the guns of the Germans.
Trenches captured by the French in upper Alsace, destructive bombardments of German positions at several points north of the Aisne and the shelling in the forest of the Aronne are told in the French official communication. Sixteen French aeroplanes have dropped large numbers of shells on the Metz-Sablonne section.
Russian warships are particularly active in the Black sea, bombarding the coast towns, and the continued progress of the Russian forces is evidenced by the capture of the town of Riza, which is about thirty-five miles east of Trebizond, one of the important objectives of the Russian army. In Persia also the Russians are forcing their advance at a lively pace and have captured the town of Senha (Senah) to the north of Kermanshah.
Artillery activity is increasing along the Dniester river and the Bessarabian frontier, probably presaging the reopening of a progressive campaign.
Fifty large German warships, accompanied by armed trawlers, Zeppelins and submarines, have been sighted steaming west off the north Holland coast, according to the report of the captain of a steam trawler which has arrived at Ymuiden.

Balfour Bitter in Reply to Col. Churchill's Charges

By the Associated Press.
London, March 8.—Bitterness marked the reply of A. J. Balfour, first lord of the admiralty, in the house of commons today to Col. Winston Spencer Churchill's attack on the naval administration, which the first lord said was unfortunate both in form and substance and likely to arouse misgivings among the people.
While deprecating the controversy, Mr. Balfour declared, "I absolutely deny Colonel Churchill's charges."
He then threw the blame on Colonel Churchill for depicting the ranks of skilled shipwrights by allowing them to join the army during Churchill's tenure of office, thus hindering the ship-building plans, which, however, the government had succeeded in keeping abreast of the needs.
"If the fleets at the command of this country at this moment are not sufficient to secure safety, then in the whole history of Great Britain they never have been," was one of the parting shots uttered by Mr. Balfour.
Colonel Churchill retorted with a brief speech, repeating his doubts about the execution of the battleship and destroyer program and asserting that even now Mr. Balfour has not given any assurance on this point. He admitted there was no reason to suppose that the British margin of safety was not sufficient, but he thought the greatest efforts should be made to build at the highest possible speed.
Other members protested against such a contest in the house of commons, and James M. Hodge, radical for East Edinburgh, criticized Colonel Churchill for starting a controversy which could not be easily stopped.
A number of other departments of admiralty activity, such as requisitioning merchant shipping, arming of merchantmen, and air defenses, were subjected to discussion, but the committee of the house eventually approved a vote of 250,000 men for the navy and several "token" appropriations for navy expenditures which had been introduced in this manner to avoid giving total amounts.

Germany Threatens Break With Portugal

By the Associated Press.
London, March 8, 8:30 p. m.—Unless the German ships seized by Portugal are released, the Portuguese minister to Germany will receive his passports Saturday at noon, says a dispatch to Zurich, Switzerland, which gives a report from Frankfurt as the basis for the statement.
The Munich Nachrichten, the dispatch adds, says that no ultimatum has yet been presented to Portugal.

SIXTEEN ARMENIANS ALL LEFT OF 40,000 LIVING IN ERZERUM

London, March 8.—The Russians today found only sixteen Armenians alive in Erzerum out of the usual Armenian population of 40,000, according to information received in Petrograd and forwarded by Reuter's correspondent in the Russian capital.
"The Turkish inhabitants of Erzerum," the correspondent adds, "stated that a few days before the capture of the fortress by the Russians all the Armenians in the town were driven out by the police in a westerly direction, where the Kurds, who had been forewarned, massacred all of them."

VIAN BANK ROBBED, SUSPECTS FOUND BY TRAIL OF BILLS

By the Associated Press.
Vian, Okla., March 8.—Bills accidentally dropped by the two men supposed to have held up and robbed the First National bank of Vian late today traced the trail which a posse of citizens followed to five miles east of here tonight. The two suspects, who gave their names as Grover Sharp and Will Crittenden, were encamped in a clump of bushes.
Their saddles and pistols were found concealed in a thicket near their camp. The suspects had released their horses.
One hundred and forty dollars in bills were found along the route followed by the posse. However, with this exception, no trace has been found of the stolen funds, totaling $3500.

BIG GERMAN FLEET SEEN IN NORTH SEA

By the Associated Press.
London, March 8.—A German fleet consisting of at least fifty big warships, followed by a large gray-painted armed trawler fleet, two big Zeppelins and numerous submarines was sighted Monday afternoon in the North Sea off Tereschelling island, north of Holland, according to the report of a steam trawler from Ymuiden, says Reuter's Amsterdam correspondent. The fleet was proceeding westward.
The correspondent adds that Monday morning five large cruisers of unknown nationality passed Ymuiden at full speed. The German fleet returned to its base this morning, says Reuter's Ymuiden correspondent, telegraphing Wednesday.
"A Dutch trawler which was searched by one of the warships," the correspondent adds, "reports that many of the vessels had a peculiar appearance. Those carrying several funnels had a sternmost funnel painted yellow or covered with yellow cloth, while the other funnels were gray."

WATERPOWER BILL PASSED BY SENATE

SHIELDS MEASURE CARRIES BY VOTE OF 44 TO 22, AFTER LONG FIGHT.

Conservation Champions Fail in Effort to Make Various Amendments.

By the Associated Press.
Washington, March 8.—The senate tonight, after four weeks of debate, passed the Shields bill to provide for development of water power in navigable waters by private capital. The bill, which was introduced by Senator Shields of New York, was passed by a vote of 44 to 22, after a long and bitter fight.
The bill provides for the construction of dams in navigable waters under licenses issued by the secretary of war and gives grantees the right to operate power plants for fifty years, after which time the federal government may take over the plant, after giving two years' notice and paying a fair value to be determined by the secretary of war and the owner, or by proceedings in the United States courts.
Regulation of rates and services is placed with the states in which the plants are located, or if interstate commerce is involved, with the interstate commerce commission when the states involved are unable to agree on reasonable rates and adequate service.
The bill also provides that no works shall be operated in any combination to limit the output of electric power or in restraint of trade.

GERMAN NOTE EXPRESSES WILLINGNESS TO CONDUCT SUB. WAR UNDER OLD RULES

Provision Made, of Course, That Great Britain and Allies Do Likewise—Rumors That the Administration Plans Warning to Citizens is Denied at Washington.

By the Associated Press.
Washington, March 8.—Germany today made a further explanation to the United States of the position it has taken in regard to armed merchant vessels of the entente allies.
Count von Bernstorff handed Secretary Lansing a formal memorandum, which, after reviewing the events leading up to Germany's recent decision to treat armed merchant ships as auxiliary cruisers, conceded that existing international law does not regulate the use of submarines, indicated a willingness to conduct underwater warfare in accordance with the law prevailing at the outbreak of the war providing Great Britain and her allies would regard the same laws, and expressed the hope that the people of the United States, remembering the long-existing friendly relations between the two nations, would appreciate the German position.
The memorandum was submitted to President Wilson shortly after its receipt. It will be considered together with other documents from the German government, in determining what shall be the next step of the United States in the submarine negotiations. There was every indication that the administration would be in a hurry to announce a stand as to the new policy of the central powers or to pass finally upon Germany's latest proposal for a settlement of the Lusitania case.
Echoes of President Wilson's victory in the fight to end agitation in congress over the armed ship question were heard today on both sides of the capital. In the senate, Senator Stone, chairman of the foreign relations committee, made a statement after a conference with the president, announcing that because of the chance that his remarks might be misconstrued abroad, he would not make a speech he had referred for delivery tomorrow. He referred to the difficulties by which the executive was beset and declared that President Wilson's supreme wish was to avoid the calamity of war.
On the house side several members asked leave to extend in the record their remarks of yesterday on the taunting of the McComber armed ships resolution, and Minority Leader Mann took occasion to suggest that some had voted on both sides of the question on the test ballots so they could explain their positions to constituents on either side. Representative Wilson of Ohio began a reply, but Mr. Mann shut off further argument by a point of order.
On both the white house and the state department there came during the day emphatic denials of a rumor that the administration itself intended to warn American citizens off armed ships. At the state department it was explained that it was for the citizens themselves who took passage on armed ships not entering American waters to determine whether they were offering vessels armed defensively or offensively. The record of the international negotiations under which captains would act in the presence of a submarine. An offensive armed ship which enters American waters, it was said, would be regarded as a war vessel and would not be allowed to remain in more than twenty-four hours. In foreign waters, however, it is no concern of this government how ships are armed.
The new submarine campaign of the central powers has now been in operation eight days and up to tonight the state department had no reports of any act by a German or Austrian submarine commander under the changed orders. State department officials make no secret of the fact that they do not believe any acts will be committed if they can be avoided, which involve the death or injury of American citizens.
Administration officials began considering today the complete translation of documents appended to the German declaration of intentions. It was indicated that the next move by the United States might take the form of an inquiry to Great Britain as to the authenticity of the German confidential copies of alleged instructions to British sea captains.
When attention was called to the apparent discrepancies between the German and the British versions of the instructions, officials pointed out that the date on the German version was prior to that on the British version. It was said that the future events would be considered in the light of the orders now in force. The United States will accept the assurances of the British government as to which orders are in force, just as it will accept the assurances of Germany regarding any action by that government. High officials believe the entire subject would be given careful study and consideration in an effort to reach a conclusion which will be fair to all the nations concerned and upon which the United States can stand hereafter. Meanwhile should an American citizen be involved in an attack on an armed merchant ship, upon the facts in the case will depend whatever action is taken.
When the senate adjourned tonight there was some talk of the McComber resolution to warn Americans off armed ships being brought before the senate tomorrow.
Passage of the Shields water power bill, which has been the unfinished business of the senate for several weeks, left the way open for Senator McComber to call up his resolution. He desired to do so. Administration senators agreed if an attempt was made to bring about a vote on the resolution, they would forestall it by moving to lay it on the table.
The McComber resolution is in line with the one which he offered an amendment to the Gore resolution, which was tabled with the resolution.

Stark City Bank Robbed, but Robbers Are Soon Captured

By the Associated Press.
Joliet, Mo., March 8.—The Stark City Bank of Stark City, Mo., 25 miles northwest of here, was robbed late today by two men, who held up the cashier, Waldo Hapler, locked a bookkeeper, Miss Lena Tanner, in the vault and took $210. In their haste the robbers overlooked $1500. Six hours later they were captured six miles from here in a battle in which one of them was wounded.
The robbers forced Hapler to accompany them to the outskirts of the city. There they met a posse of police, which surrounded the robbers in a creek bottom. Chief of police Hapler shouted to him that the bank had been robbed. Borden organized a posse and started in pursuit.
Meanwhile Hapler had been released by his captors. He joined the posse, which surrounded the robbers in a creek bottom. Chief of police Hapler shouted to him that the bank had been robbed. Borden organized a posse and started in pursuit.
The arrested men said they were Charles Estes and Thomas Klergy.

Billion and Half Dollars Needed for Navy Program

By the Associated Press.
Washington, March 8.—Approximately a billion and a half dollars for new ships and an annual upkeep charge of $100,000,000 is what Admiral Fletcher, commanding the Atlantic fleet, estimates it would cost to carry out the navy general board's recommendation that the American navy should equal the most powerful fleet afloat by not later than 1925.
The admiral's estimate was given today in testimony before the house naval committee. Representative Callaway, who brought out the statement, called attention to published reports that Great Britain had added nearly a million tons to her fighting ships since the war began. He asked if the situation was not "hopeless" Admiral Fletcher thought not, adding that judging by its great wealth, the United States could well afford to give its interests the same protection that other nations have given theirs.
Representative Hendley asked if a race in building warships or in any military preparation between two nations had not invariably led to war. Admiral Fletcher said no, and expressed the opinion that failure to prepare was merely making certain that a nation must surrender its rights.
Representative Callaway asked if it was not reasonable to assume that the European war would end within a year or a year and a half, at most. Admiral Fletcher thought it would, and added that he believed the close of the war would see the greatest opportunity in history for the success of an international disarmament or limitation of armaments argument. He insisted, however, that the United States should not afford to put off its navy building on the account.
"Why not put all our energies into doing better," he asked.

VILLA NOW CLOSE TO AMERICAN BORDER

BANDIT LEADER REPORTED AT PALOMAS RANCH AT NOGALES, CHIHUAHUA.

Two Troops of U. S. Cavalry Assigned to Task of Patrolling the Boundary.

By the Associated Press.

Columbus, N. M., March 8.—Francisco Villa and his forces today reached the ranch of the Palomas Land and Cattle company at Nogales, Chihuahua, ten miles below the border and forty-four miles east of here, according to a telegram sent by the American foreman of the ranch and which was received here late today.

The message made no mention of Arthur McKinnay, James Corbett and James O'Neill, American cattlemen reported to have been taken prisoners yesterday.

The telegram from the ranch manager stated that Villa appeared in person at the ranch, but did not indicate the number of his followers. The Mexican government troops stationed at Palomas fled at the approach of the Villa forces, it was said. Mexican customs guards along the border near here today were engaged in digging rifle pits.

Villa apparently was at liberty to move either toward Juarez or west toward the Sonora border without opposition.

Two troops of the Thirteenth United States cavalry were stationed at Gibson's ranch, fifteen miles east, and patrols covered the boundary line between that point and Hachita, N. M., fifteen miles to the east. Hachita is directly north of the Nogales ranch.

By the Associated Press.

El Paso, Texas, March 8.—Reports that Francisco Villa with a force of several hundred men was encamped a few miles south of the United States border and east of Columbus, N. M., led to wide discussion here today regarding his possible intentions.

Close observers of the Mexican situation expressed the conviction that Villa's force is well armed and supplied and is being constantly augmented.

Reports that Villa intended to cross the international border received no further confirmation. Officials were inclined to the belief that his present efforts were directed toward increasing his following and preparing for a possible attack by the de facto government forces.

Representatives of the de facto government declared military steps were being taken in an effort to capture the bandit leader, but no details of the troop movements were received.

Wealthy Mexican Indicted in New York on Smuggling Charge

By the Associated Press.

New York, March 8.—Cecilio Ocon, formerly one of the wealthiest men of Mexico, who took refuge with Gen. Felix Diaz on the United States gunboat Whetling at Vera Cruz in October, 1912, after a breach had occurred between Diaz and General Huerta, then dictator of Mexico, was arrested here today with Pablo A. Lopez on a smuggling charge. The specific allegation against Ocon was that he had conspired to defraud the United States government by concealing a diamond necklace worth $8,000 and bringing it into this country without payment of duty. In default of $1,000 bail each of the Mexican refugees was locked up in the Tombs.

Ocon was prominent in the events of Mexico City in February, 1913, which resulted in the overthrow of President Madero. In May of that year in the Mexican chamber of deputies he was charged by Querido Moreno, who later became minister of foreign affairs, with being "the actual author of the late president's denunciation was made in connection with a demand for an appropriation of $15,000 to be paid to Ocon 'for services rendered to the government.' Ocon's property in Mexico City, valued in the millions, was confiscated by Huerta after Ocon fled. After his arrival in this city with other Diaz followers Ocon continued to play a part in Mexican affairs. Recently, according to the government agents, Ocon has been living with his family in a modest apartment here. He is said to have been hard pressed for ready funds.

The first intimation the customs authorities obtained of the alleged smuggling was when the diamond necklace was offered for sale several days ago to two large jewelry firms on Fifth avenue. The necklace was left at one of these places for examination and Lopez was taken into custody when the government agents saw he appeared there today. Later Ocon was arrested at his home.

According to the government agents Lopez made a secret visit to Mexico as Ocon's direction, returning here in company with an official of the Carranza government on February 22, last, and bringing the necklace with him. To the customs officers he is alleged to have declared that the only dutiable articles in his baggage were a few cigars.

Dieguez, who was withdrawn several months ago from command of the campaign against the Yaqui Indians in Sonora, has been returned from his assignment in the state of Jalisco and again will lead the Carranza troops in the Yaqui river valley, according to reports received here today from Hermosillo, capital of Sonora.

Gen. Francisco R. Serrano, who has been in command of the Mexican troops operating against the Yaquis, has been ordered to Celaya, Mex., to join an expeditionary force gathered to operate against Zapata bands.

Gen. Alvaro Obregon, it was said, is organizing an army of 25,000 for the Zapata campaign.

COLORADO STRIKE REPORT IS MADE

PRESIDENT'S COMMISSION RECOMMENDS QUICK ACTION
IN MATTER.

Not Only Strikers, but Operators
Should Have Been Indicted, Is Stated.

By the Associated Press.

Washington, March 8.—Recommendation that the federal trade commission study the economic side of coal mining with a view to steps toward preventing waste and putting the duty on a basis giving maximum safety and maximum steady employment, is made in the report of President Wilson's special Colorado coal strike commission. The report was sent to congress by the president today for its information. Both Low of New York, Charles W. Mills of Philadelphia, and Patrick Gilday of Clearfield, Pa., composed the commission.

The commission says the fact that of four hundred indictments returned in Colorado in connection with strike troubles, all were against strikers, has left a "festering sore" on public opinion.

"Some of the citizens of Colorado," the report comments, "believe that many illegal acts were committed on the part of the operators and the justice which finds all the indictments on one side does not seem to them to be handed. Again, it is believed by some, even among the operators, that in many of these cases the state has not sufficient evidence to convict."

In such cases, and your commission believes that there are such, the men affected are suffering from great injuries in that they are either confined in jail, unable to get bond, or out on bond, they are refused employment in Colorado on account of the indictments against them, and are prevented from leaving Colorado or the jurisdiction of the court by their bondsman.

The commission says "this situation should be quickly ended." A general indorsement was given to wages, living conditions and educational advantages in the Colorado field.

Verdun Front Described From German Side of Line

By the Associated Press.

Metz, March 8.—Via Berlin to London, March 8.—A period of comparative calm still continues in the operations around Verdun. The Germans are devoting their energies to consolidating and strengthening the positions won by them last week within and on the verge of the fortress line.

The French after a series of desperate attempts to regain the village of Douaumont, apparently have paused for the moment to take breath and gather their strength before renewing their effort to crush back the German wedge which has been biting its way into the vitals of the proud fortress.

The viewing point of the battle from which the Associated Press correspondent has just returned is the Chaudes forest, offering the nearest possible sheltered point of observation to the village and fort of Douaumont. The fort itself was barely two and one-half miles distant from the correspondent's position and the village only a short two miles away. Closer inspection would have been impossible, unless the trips were made by the French for the intervening country is open and in full view at several places of the French observers.

The wood itself has been swept and torn by a hail of shrapnel in the day while searching the thickets for concealed batteries, and it had also been under a heavy shrapnel from bursting shrapnel. But it was evident that the action on this stretch of front was greater than the operations when a German battery commander coolly placed his guns in plain sight of the French observers, having found that the French had no guns at that point capable of reaching his battery. A renewal of the heavy fighting is possible therefore at any time and at almost any point along the whole line.

Where the blow will come and whether the French or the Germans will first launch the offensive is uncertain, but it is evident that it must come since neither side can rest content in their present positions.

Ad Clubs Will Help Preparedness Work

By the Associated Press.

New York, March 8.—Hebert S. Houston, president of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World, today promised the naval advisory board one million dollars worth of free advertising in newspapers and magazines in carrying out the board's plans for the mobilization of the country's industries in the event of war.

Houston was one of a number of prominent men with whom the board conferred here for the purpose of ascertaining how large business concerns of the United States can be prepared to co-operate with the board.

Denial of the report that Thomas A. Edison had made public any naval secrets by publishing information about his new submarine battery, was made by Dr. Miller Reese Hutchison, who represented Mr. Edison at the conference. He said the inventor is suffering from "self-imposed insomnia." For the last three weeks Mr. Edison has been working throughout the night on a new experiment, sleeping between 10 a. m. and 1 p. m., Dr. Hutchison said.

Rebels Forced to Walk Plank.

By the Associated Press.

Washington, March 8.—Unofficial reports reached Washington from the west coast of Mexico today that Mexican de facto government officials had been ordered to walk the plank if they failed to surrender to the forces of the United States. The reports were being taken to Manzanillo, the generals were Francisco Ubalde, Jesus Trujillo, Francisco Mendez, Juan Ronderos and Manuel Echeverria. Mexican officials have stated that these revolutionary leaders were executed, without giving details.

Suicide's Bid Forfeited.

By the Associated Press.

Sacramento, Cal., March 8.—On the ground that the defendant was "voluntarily absent himself from court for no good reason," Police Judge J. J. Henderson today declared forfeited the $250 bail furnished by J. W. Fraley, charged with assault to commit murder, who committed suicide. When the case was called last week the attorney for Fraley offered to produce the body in court so that the defendant could make an "appearance." The judge refused the offer.

Indiana Primary Result Uncertain

By the Associated Press.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 8.—Counting of the second choice votes, cast in the primary here yesterday, will be necessary, it is believed, to decide the contest for the republican nomination for United States senator, but James P. Goodrich probably won the republican nomination for governor and Congressman John A. M. Adair was nominated for governor by the democrats.

Edgar S. New, with 1708 of the 3177 precincts in the state, was leading James E. Watson by 4531 in the senatorial contest, while Arthur R. Robinson was running far behind the two.

Americans and Germans Fight.

By the Associated Press.

London, March 8.—A Reuter dispatch from Athens says: "Private advices from Constantinople report several brawls between Germans and bluejackets of the American stationery (guard ship). The latter are now only rarely permitted to land on condition that they do not enter places of amusement frequented by Germans."

Mail Thieves Get Jewels.

By the Associated Press.

New York, March 8.—Valuable gems were included, it was learned tonight, in the loot obtained by the thieves who stole four sacks of registered mail from a ferryboat here on February 26. The postoffice department has sent to all postoffices in this city a circular describing the missing jewelry.

Falls Eight Stories to Death.

By the Associated Press.

Minneapolis, March 8.—Scores of persons saw Richard McLean fall to his death from the eighth floor of the Flour Exchange building here today. McLean, a window cleaner, had never worn a safety belt until two days ago. The belt broke from his fastenings.

By the Associated Press.

Madrid, via Paris, March 8.—Six workmen have been killed and a number of other persons wounded, including several policemen, in disorders during the progress of the general strike at Cartagena. The strike has extended to El Ferrol and Barcelona. El Ferrol is the chief naval arsenal in Spain.

POLO GAME POSTPONED.

By the Associated Press.

RAILROAD EMPLOYEES FOR EIGHT HOUR LAW

ALTHOUGH REFERENDUM VOTE IS NOT ANNOUNCED, RESULT IS ALREADY KNOWN.

Every Road in Nation Included in the Poll, Say Officials of Union.

By the Associated Press.

Chicago, March 8.—Announcement of the referendum vote of 400,000 railroad employees, involving every road in the country, or 528 different lines, on the question of demanding an eight-hour day with time and a half for overtime, will not be made until tomorrow or Friday. The vote of the men is said to be overwhelmingly in favor of demanding the shorter day with pay for overtime when the present wage agreements expire on March 31. The taking of the vote has been in progress by mail for several months.

Officers of the engineers, firemen, conductors and trainmen's organizations met here today to tabulate the vote and consider plans for presenting the demands of the men to the railroads. The Brotherhood leaders were in conference behind closed doors all day, but said no announcement of the result of the vote would be made within forty-eight hours.

Those present were W. S. Stone, grand chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers; W. G. Lee, president of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen; W. S. Carter, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers; A. B. Garretson, Order of Railway Conductors; P. Kilduff, chairman of the executive committee; A. A. Enoch, secretary of the executive committee, and C. J. Good, assistant secretary of the executive committee.

Mr. Lee said this afternoon: "There is little question that the vote will be in favor of the eight-hour day and for immediate action. If that is the case the railroads will be notified that the men demand an eight-hour day and they will be given thirty days in which to prepare their reply. If the demands are refused our next step will be to call for a referendum strike vote and negotiations will be begun with the railroads. There is a prospect of a strike, but there are many conditions which may arise between the present and the final calling out of the men which may prevent such action."

What to Do for Itching Skins

Eczema, ringworm and other itching, burning, skin eruptions are so easily made worse by improper treatment, that one has to be very careful. There is one method, however, that you need
not hesitate to use,
even on a baby's tender skin—that is,
the Resinol treatment. Resinol is the prescription of a Baltimore doctor, put up in the form of resinol ointment and Resinol soap. This proved so remarkably successful, that thousands of other physicians have prescribed it constantly for over 20 years.
Resinol usually stops itching instantly,
healing the eruption quickly, unless due to some serious internal disorder. Resinol ointment and Resinol soap can be bought at any drugstore, and are not at all expensive. Write for free sample, Dept. 1-R, Resinol, Baltimore.

Don't Merely "Stop" a Cough

Stop the Thing that Causes It and the Cough will Stop Itself

A cough is really one of our best friends. It warns us that there is inflammation or obstruction in a dangerous place. Therefore, when you get a bad cough don't proceed to dose yourself with a lot of drugs that merely "stop"
the cough temporarily by deadening the throat nerves. Treat the cause—kill the inflamed membranes. Here is a homemade remedy that gets right at the cause and will make an obstinate cough vanish
more quickly than you ever thought possible.

Put 2½ ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth) in a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. This gives you a full pint of the most pleasant
and effective cough remedy ever used,
at a cost of only 54 cents. No better to prepare. Full directions with Pinex.

It heals the inflamed membranes so quickly and promptly that you wonder how it does it. And it loosens a dry, hoarse or tight cough and stops the formation of phlegm in the throat and bronchial tubes,
thus ending the persistent loose cough.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of Norway pine extract, rich in guaiacol, and is famous for the world over for its healing effect on the membranes.
To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex," and don't accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation.

vitation for tea on Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

FOR THE LITERARY CLUB

As president of the literary club,
Mrs. Thomas Canfield requests a full attendance of members this afternoon.
Time and place are announced in the calendar. This is the annual business meeting, the date for annual election,
and other routine for club conduct.

Discussion for new year study and other important matters are to be presented.

TUESDAY BRIDGE CLUB
WITH MRS. A. B. COWAN

Among the clubs adjourned for the Lenten season, the latest to be reported is the Tuesday afternoon. Mrs.
A. B. Cowan was present week hostess, her invitation to play hands of absent members, being extended to Mrs. Mitchell Lyon of North Carolina,
Mrs. W. W. Pryor and Mrs. William
Carroll. In the award of prizes, Mrs.
D. Williamson made the fortunate call Mrs. Pio Crespi is the Easter hostess.

MRS. ERNESTINE DREIFUS
AT TEMPLE RODEF SHOLOM

The public generally is invited to hear Mrs. Ernestine Dreifus, national secretary of Council for Jewish Women, at Temple Rodef Sholom this morning. Mrs. Dreifus is paying an official visit. It is mutual benefit for the women of the city to hear her; she will make them more intelligent in local work, and she, in turn, can take to the national organization a more intelligent report of what the Jewish women are doing in Waco.

MRS. EARLY HOSTESS
FOR HER BRIDGE CLUB

The last game for the Young Married Ladies' Bridge club is now played until the Easter tide calls the roll again. This came with Mrs. W.
Early in quite a pretty game. The only guest was Mrs. Edna May Maderis of Pecos. Mrs. Early provided two very acceptable prizes, one quite a novelty in electric button night
card, and the other a new design bridge table cover. The game was won by Mrs. Adrian Moore and Mrs. W. S.
Witte.

WEST AVENUE SCHOOL
HAS VALUABLE ADDITION

Reported at the Parent-Teachers' association at its last session, was something not only of interest and pleasure for the pupils, but of vital value to class instruction. This is the purchase of a radiograph, with full set of electric views, for conduction
of class work, geography, travel, domestic science analysis and so on. This is done at great expense, but is well worth the purchase. Teaching by means of the radiograph, and by the actual sight of what is learned is now conceded an up-to-date method. So the West Avenue grammar school is to be congratulated.

WITH MRS. M'LENDON

The last regular program for the Current Event club before the annual business session found Mrs. Abner Mc-Lendon hostess. The subject was South America, a timely topic in the wake of the great Pan-American congress
just held in our nation's capital. Roll call brought forth items of current interest from South America. Miss An-net Forsgren prepared the formal paper in which she gave glimpses into South American cities. She was followed by quite an informing discussion led by Mrs. J. R. Davis. The club will meet next for business session with Mrs. W. A. Morrow.

MONTHLY BUSINESS HOUR
WITH THE W. C. T. U.

Everything encouraging was reported by the seven neighborhood circles
who are promoting the various departments of the Women's Christian Temperance Union. This was made emphatic at the session of Tuesday.
Seven circles are very active. On the first of May, Mrs. Mary Harris
Armour of Georgia, known in W. C.
T. U. circles as the "Georgia Cyclone," is scheduled to deliver an address here,
one of ten Texas cities in which she appears. Everywhere Mrs. Armour has been heard by crowded houses. One of the reports from department superintendents aroused more than usual interest; this is Mrs. F. R. Ripley, who makes personal visits for counsel and prayer at the jail each week.

FRIENDSHIP SHOWER COMES
FOR MRS. WILLIAM EDMOND

By her own quiet convivance, Mrs.
Harold Shear planned and brought to happy finish a shower for Mrs. William Donnell. Having lost everything by fire, it was the happy thought of Mrs. Shear to bespeak the close friends of Mrs. Edmond for a friendship shower. Into her own home invitations were given for Tuesday. The order of the enjoyment was surprise for Mrs. Edmond, shower from her friends and social pleasure with noon luncheon from Mrs. Shear. Those thus called together were the Messies Ida Orand, Mildred Fort, Eloise Fort,

with the Mesdames Luke Moore, Junior, Edwina Sturges, Frank Wheeler, J. T. Strain, Robert Donnell, M. C. H.
Park, Eva Prendergast, W. A. Little,
Mitchell Lyon of North Carolina,
George Zizina, William Breustedt, E.
A. Sturges, Merchant Colgin, Buford
McWhorter, Clinton Padgett, George Rotan and Louis Stephens.

MISS MAUD SAPPINGTON
COMPLIMENTS ENTRE NOUS

Having been invited guest several times within the Entre Nous forty-two circle, Miss Maud Sappington extended invitation for special game of club and guests on Tuesday afternoon. As hostess she was assisted by Miss Modie Vernon of Holland. From first to last, every detail in this pretty little spring party gave patronage to the violet season. About the room, in vases and bowls and baskets were the violet flowers. They were on the score cards and table markers. They appeared as plate favors in the luncheon
and as corsage cluster for one of the prizes. Also, the violet color was in the dainty handkerchiefs which made another favor. The winners in game and cut were Mrs. L. E. Stewart and George Gilliam. Those who enjoyed this courtesy from Miss Sappington were the Mesdames James Kellum, W.
L. Southern, Glenn Thompson, L. E.
Stewart, W. A. Appell, J. L. Pritchart, George Gilliam, J. W. Boyd, Herman Hagerdorn, Otis de Hay, E. G.
Lily and Joseph Sappington.

PRESS CLUB HAS SESSION
WITH MRS. FRANK ISH

In regular session, the Press club had a busy afternoon with Mrs. Frank Ish. There was not only the program but the annual election of club officers and delegates. For the election there is Mrs. J. M. Hale, president; the Mesdames J. F. Smart and Susan Thornton Price, vice presidents; Mrs.
F. M. Thayer, secretary, and the Mesdames J. W. Wolfe and Frank Ish, secretaries; delegate and alternate to the district meeting at Brenham, Mrs.
J. B. Logan and Mrs. Gaylord Helout;
delegate and alternate to the General Convention in New York City, Miss Decca Lamar West and Mrs. J. Findley Smart. The club is committed to sending articles for baby wear to Miss Robert Clark, as practical observance for Nation-wide Baby Week.
Also, there was financial response to the appeal for preservation to the public of the Longfellow birth place in Portland, Maine. The papers of the afternoon were analyses of two Psalms
made by Mrs. J. M. Hale and Mrs. E.
W. Sanderson. Quite an interesting round table was conducted by Mrs.
W. W. Saunders. Only two members were absent.

MR. AND MRS. E. M. RAY
HAVE SOCIAL COURTESY

The visit of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Ray from Saint Joseph, Missouri, has not only been the pleasant meeting with former friends, Mr. and Mrs. C. W.
Wilson, but it has been inspiration for a continuous round of social courtesy.
Mr. and Mrs. Wilson introduced their guests in Sunday dinner at the Huaco club.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Cowan repeated
the pleasure within their attractive home on Tuesday evening. Their guests were twelve, and Mrs. Cowan's provision for table picture was a pretty spring design made from the sweet
pea. This in low effect for center piece, and the other a new design round the candles. Much admired were the clever little "Jap" designs for plate cards. Following the dinner, a bridge game was enjoyed.
The guests were the Mesdames and Messrs. Ray, Wilson, George Zizina, with the Mesdames William Breustedt
and Mitchell Lyon of North Carolina, Dr. Dillard and Hazeline Smith of Philadelphia.

On Wednesday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gregg complimented Mr.
and Mrs. Ray with a dinner party.
Tonight Mr. and Mrs. James D.

Williamson extend still another home
dinner courtesy.

On Friday evening, Franklin Lindsey is dinner host for Mr. and Mrs.
Ray at the Huaco club.

MRS. JAMES H. RILEY
IS LUNCHEON HOSTESS

In special compliment to Mrs. H. P.
Parnellee of the United States Navy
and Mrs. E. M. Ray, who is visitor from Missouri, Mrs. James Riley ac-knowledgeed social indebtedness, together with the presence of other visitors, by invitation for luncheon at the Huaco club. More than thirty were present, and each left, paying Mrs. Riley the compliment that she had presented, not only a beautiful tribute to the incoming spring tide, but one of the prettiest tables ever seen at the club. This is saying much, for Waco hostesses and florists are deservedly praised for their handson-table. Mrs. Riley first set colonial candlesticks, each with five branches
for play of prism at either end of her table. Between these she made avenue of smaller spire. With pink wax tapers, these were lit to sparkle in their crystal slint. For either end was a huge basket of sweet peas, pink for the most, but with just a suspicion of lavender relief. Each end of the table widened, the length between making place of rest for a succession of white enameled boxes, from which a delicate treat held sweet pea vine
in blossom, and base of blooming sweet alysium. Here and there the butterfly lit, all this giving not only beauty but welcome to the springtime. The conventional luncheon service was given, with the first course offered in the reception hall. At each place of honor lay a pea corsage favor. The place cards found names of Miss Franklin Lindsey, with the Mesdames
Robert Lee Henry, C. W. Wilson, Wil-

SABRE UMBRELLA COMING IN VOGUE

To be real smart one must nowadays, according to the fashion mentors, carry an umbrella in a case resembling a sabre dangling from the wrist. This mode is probably due to the military spirit invading Europe.
The dress is suitable for the first balmy days of spring and is of taupe colored velvet. The skirt is exceedingly high waisted, and a bolero effect is given the waist by the ruf-shoulders.

Notice to Subscribers.
Delivery routes in the city of Waco are in the hands of independent carriers, who buy their papers at wholesale prices. Subscriptions accounts are due them, not the Waco Morning News. They are under heavy bond, not only to give the best delivery service, but to pay for their papers each month. Their remuneration is the difference between the wholesale price and the retail price which they receive from subscribers. This margin of profit is such that they cannot afford to extend credit, except month by month. They are not required, and they are advised against, delivering the paper to anyone who does not pay in accordance with the above subscription terms. The carriers are all earnest, hard working men and they will appreciate any courtesy shown them.

SHIPPING ADULTERATED EGGS.

The federal department of agriculture has had under consideration for some time the application of the federal food and drugs act to the shipment in interstate commerce of eggs in the shell, especially the two classes of eggs known in the trade as "current receipts" and as "rejects" from candling rooms. "Current receipts" contain at different seasons of the year varying proportions of eggs which are filthy, decomposed, or putrid. "Rejects" from candling rooms, as a rule, contain large proportions of eggs that are filthy, decomposed, or putrid, and very small proportions of eggs suitable for consumption.

Under the federal food and drugs act, eggs, in common with other articles of food, are adulterated if they consist wholly or in part of a filthy, decomposed, or putrid substance. Section 2 of the act prohibits the shipment in interstate commerce of foods which are adulterated and it is plain that this prohibition applies to the shipment in interstate commerce of "current receipts" or of "rejects" from candling rooms or of any other grade of eggs in the shell unless the filthy, decomposed, or putrid eggs have been removed.

In the opinion of the department, eggs which contain yolks stuck to the shell, moldy eggs, black spots, mixed rots, addled eggs, black rots, and any other eggs which consist wholly or in part of a filthy, decomposed or putrid substance, are adulterated.
The investigations of the department have shown that it is commercially practicable, by the method of candling, to eliminate from any given shipment most of the eggs of the kinds which the department regards as adulterated. It is not the practice of the department, however, to base proceedings under the food and drugs act on shipments of eggs unless there are present larger percentages of bad eggs than are ordinarily present in recognized commercial grades of candled eggs. The department is informed that cases of eggs are not allowed to receive even the lowest candled egg grades if the cases contain more than one and one-half dozen or 5 per cent of bad eggs. Country shippers who are not certain of the freshness of their eggs should candle them before shipping them in interstate commerce.

Eggs which are adulterated may be shipped in interstate or foreign commerce for use in tanning or other technical ways without violating the provisions of the food and drugs act only if they are first denatured so as to render them incapable of being used for food. Since it is impracticable to denature eggs in the shell, adulterated shell eggs must be broken out and denatured prior to shipment.

We have an idea that Methodist church in Chicago which ordered its pastor to accept no more wedding fees as his personal perquisite will soon see its mistake. So long as the fee reverts to the general church fund there will be a tendency on the part of the grooms to forget to deposit a fee altogether, and the reputation of the minister for performing ceremonies without charge will make him so popular that he will in all likelihood have little time left in which to discharge the other duties of his pastorate. Besides, most ministers are underpaid and are entitled to a few perquisites on the side.

If the Iowa supreme court believes actually that "tips are neither prohibited nor compulsory" the justices have no proper appreciation of the waltz power, declares the Louisville Courier-Journal.

A PROPHET NOT WITHOUT HONOR.

Whenever James J. Hill ventures to express a view upon the future he is assured of a respectful hearing, says the Financial World. He is a prophet who is believed, and is not without honor in his own country, because of the known fact that many of his prophecies have come true. Not so many years ago Mr. Hill declared the harvest of the country would reach a figure then beyond the ken of the average man. His statement was ridiculed, the comic papers joked about it and economists of repute, who were quoted in the press as learned men, voiced the opinion that Mr. Hill was a surcharged optimist. But the value of the harvest soon exceeded Mr. Hill's estimate.

Now Mr. Hill, in his characteristic manner, laughs about the fears that European competition after the war will swamp our own industries; he cannot see the necessity for a Chinese Wall of protection, but contends on the other hand that industrial activity will be general all over the world.

In a nutshell, Mr. Hill directly challenges the protectionist, when he declares that if European products are to be kept from our markets, Europe will be unable to pay for what she will want from us when the war is over. This is horse sense. It displays the logic of a David Harum. It is a volume of sound philosophy compressed in one thought.

To pay her debts to the United States Europe will have to realize upon her products, but how can she do so if we crowd her from our markets and at the same time wax enthusiastic about our great opportunities to extend our export trade? If we cannot get the pay for what we sell what is the use of trying to sell to others than our own people?

THE COW IN DIVERSIFIED FARMING.

H. C. Poe, a Temple banker, who loaned Bell county boys $5,000 last year with which to purchase thoroughbred brood sows, has decided to aid the adult farmers this season in purchasing good milk cows and his bank has set aside the sum of $25,000 for this purpose. He believes the presence of good milk cows on the farm will not only enable the family to live more cheaply and much better, but that it will help the farmer pursue a policy of "home preparedness" by enabling him to have some ready cash throughout the year from the sale of his dairy products and thus relieve him of the necessity of sacrificing his money crops at the moment they are harvested. The maintenance of several cows on the farm will not only greatly aid the "live at home" movement, but will help to solve the cotton acreage problem by compelling the planting of sufficient forage and feed crops to properly maintain the cows.

"I believe the cows will pay for themselves in eight months," said Mr. Poe recently, "and this is the way I want the plan to work. In this way the farmers will be out nothing but the necessary time for milking and attending to the dairy products, and this is a very small item. Besides, there are always enough advantages from having several good cows around to more than make up for this, and from the way the applications and phone calls are coming in, it is at once recognized that the people in Temple's trade territory appreciate this. It won't take us long to get the 'four hundred' applications at present planned. The first to make application will be the first to get the money, provided they are really interested in protecting their money crops, and a man does not have to own a big farm in order to get a cow—or two or three cows if he is able to take care of them properly and needs them. Much depends, of course, upon the size of the family. The plan is for the benefit of tenants as well as land owners, and I really expect many of the former to take advantage of it."

The bankers can do a great deal toward assisting the farmer in solving his problems and many of them are willing to lend this assistance, but the bankers are justified in insisting that the money they put out on the farm shall be invested in some revenue producing factor like livestock or other thing else for which there is a ready and profitable market.

Mr. Poe is making a valuable contribution to the economic wealth of Bell county and we are sure the citizens appreciate his services.

The anti-prohibitionists have raised a big hue and cry about their love for local self-government, but it's dollars to doughnuts that that will not be their cry in the Illinois legislature against the plan of the prohibitionists to bring the unit for the control of the liquor question down to wards and election precincts in the city of Chicago. No, the organized liquor interests are for local self-government or any other principle only so long as it is the most convenient instrument with which to serve their interests.

Eighty thousand people heard Billy Sunday preach in Baltimore Sunday.

FACTS SHOULD BE UNEARTHED.

We trust there will be a thorough and unbiased sifting of the alleged confessions made by four men in New York to the effect that they had been hired by the shirtmakers' union to beat up and kill the strikebreakers, the consideration therefor being $100. One of the men admitted, it is declared, that he had agreed to shoot any one desired for $1.

While everybody realizes the high tension to which one's feelings can be wrought in a controversy between representatives of organized labor on one side and "scabs" or strikebreakers on the other, it is almost inconceivable that this animosity should become such on either side that deliberate murder would be resorted to. But if this deliberate murder has been attempted at the instance of the representatives of the union, then those representatives should be made to suffer the same penalty as that meted out to those men who undertook, for a financial consideration, to execute the orders of the union's representatives.

We believe in the principles of organized labor, but neither labor nor capital should be permitted to transgress the laws of the land in order to carry a partisan point, and when either side to a labor controversy so far forgets itself as to become an aider and abettor of crime it is time for the law to assert its supremacy. We trust a full investigation of the matter will exonerate the shirtmakers' union, but whether it does or not the public is entitled to the facts in the case, judicially and impartially determined.

Members of the local Shakespeare club are entitled to the gratitude of the entire city in their decision to park a portion of the Riverside Drive as their contribution to a more beautiful city. And we trust the statement that other women's clubs of Waco will follow this leadership is well founded. There is no city in the state that lends itself more readily to beautification than Waco and when once the citizens fully realize their opportunity in this direction we believe Waco will become in every way the most beautiful city in Texas, as it is already the best shaded. We are glad the good women are taking the lead.

While the president won out handsomely in his scrap with congress over the question of warning Americans off belligerent ships, those who sought to embarrass him in his diplomatic negotiations for the sake of political gain back at home got their positions made clear, on which they can make an appeal to certain of their constituents particularly interested in the matter, and that is what they wanted, we are persuaded, rather than to save American lives or avoid war between this and some other country.

It was not necessary for Representatives Sherwood and Page of Ohio and North Carolina, respectively, to refuse to continue in congress because of their inability to agree with President Wilson, as we see it, but we think infinitely more of their candor and political honesty than we do of those other representatives who seek to embarrass the president and then come back home and tell how loyally they supported the administration.

We wonder what would have become of the president's program if the number of absentees among the representatives from other states had been as large as that from Texas, and as many defaulters among those who were in Washington as there were in the Texas delegation. It was much more popular to support Wilson in Baltimore than in Washington, it appears.

Dr. Theobald von Bethmann-Hollweg, imperial German chancellor, was a lawyer in his earlier life. He is now 57 years of age. He studied law at Göttingen and practiced for six years, after which he was made a judge of Potsdam. There he became intimate with and gained the confidence of the present emperor, with whom he had formerly been a fellow student at Bonn.

The city of Philadelphia has officially pinned on the blue ribbon. Twelve thousand employees have been informed that they will be immediately discharged if they drink during working hours or show any evidence of liquor drinking when they report. The Trenton, New Jersey, water department has followed suit by forbidding all of its employees to touch liquor.

Dr. Leonard Keene Hirschberg of Johns Hopkins university says a baby may safely cry two hours out of the twenty-four. Such a proceeding may be safe for the baby, but it is awfully hard on the mother and the neighbors. But maybe the doctor would be willing to watch after the youngsters while they take their daily lung expansions.

From the way Congressman-at-Large Jeff McMurre has been breaking into the limelight lately, especially for a first-timer, he must be trying to make an impression upon some of the eligible representatives of the fair sex in Washington.

SEVEN INDICTMENTS ALL ACCOUNTED FOR

GRAND JURY AT AUSTIN RETURNS BILLS AGAINST HARRIS COUNTY OFFICIAL.

Tax Collector Druesdow Charged With Withholding Money—Cuff But-tons to Sweeten.

Special to the Morning News.
Austin, March 8.—Just before the Travis county grand jury adjourned today it presented Assistant Attorney General Clyde A. Sweeten with a copy of solid gold sleeve buttons, engraved with H. B. Sweeten's initials, as a token of appreciation of services rendered the inquisitorial body during its investigation of tax and anti-trust matters.
Seven indictments returned by the Travis county grand jury Tuesday after an investigation of the tax collectors of the state, have all been accounted for. Three of these indictments are against Karl L. Druesdow, tax collector of Harris county, and a prominent citizen in Houston. Three are against C. C. Quillen, former chief bookkeeper in the tax department of Harris county, and one against L. B. Smith, who was assistant in that department to Mr. Quillen and who was re-appointed by Comptroller H. B. Terrell as auditing clerk.
The grand jury is continuing its investigation of the tax collectors of the state and other indictments may be forthcoming. Several collectors investigated, however, have shown a record.

The indictments against Collector Druesdow charge misapplication of public funds covering a period of three years. They allege that during that time he collected $42,000 due the state in settlements with May 1, 1913, May 1, 1914, and May 1, 1915, was not paid in to the state within the time prescribed by law. Mr. Druesdow has made bond with the sheriff of Harris county in the sum of $5000 for each case.

The indictments against Quillen allege that he gave aid to Collector Druesdow in the misapplication of public funds. Mr. Quillen was likewise indicted by a previous grand jury. He has testified before the present grand jury several times. He was released in these new indictments on a bond of $1000 in each case.

The indictment against L. B. Smith alleges that he gave aid to Collector Druesdow in the misapplication of public funds with regard to the settlement due May 1, 1914. He has been released on a bond of $5000 in the one indictment brought against him.

The name of Mr. Smith is given on the back of the Druesdow indictments and he will be used as a witness by the state. It is understood that he expects immunity from prosecution in his case. He has been before the grand jury several times.

The indictments have been returned in the criminal district court of Travis county by Judge A. S. Fisher, appointed by Governor James E. Ferguson to the bench.
Judge Fisher's first charge to the grand jury called for an investigation of the state departments. Since that time he has charged and re-charged each grand jury on this point. Assistant Attorney General Clyde Sweeten and his associates have been at work upon the books in the comptroller's department. The investigations will probably continue for some time.

The first indictment against Druesdow charges that on the first day of May, 1913, he had in his hands $7,611.79, which should have been sent to the state treasury and "which sum of money he did unlawfully, wilfully and fraudulently fail to pay into the treasury of the state of Texas at the time prescribed, the time prescribed by law being on or before the first day of May, 1913."

The second indictment alleges failure to pay into the treasury the sum of $29,759.34, collected between March 1, 1913, and April 30, 1914, and which should have been sent to the treasury on or before May 1, 1914. The third indictment alleges failure to pay into the treasury $8,810.28, due on or before May 1, 1915.

The three indictments against Quillen relate to the same alleged transactions, it being charged that Quillen "well knowing the said offenses committed by the said Karl L. Druesdow and with the purpose that the said Druesdow might evade an arrest and then and there unlawfully, wilfully and fraudulently give aid to the said Karl L. Druesdow against the peace and dignity of the state." It is further charged that Quillen "advised, encouraged and agreed to aid" the said Druesdow in the one indictment against him, which is in connection with the alleged withholding of tax money in 1914.

Witnesses for the state named in the indictment against Druesdow are: Comptroller H. B. Terrell, A. W. Taylor, E. J. Crocker, Mr. Woodall, Mr. McDonald, L. E. Edwards, Chester Thrasher, Morris Hirschfeld, R. C. Boudreau, J. M. Edwards, state treasurer; J. M. Moulton and Charles B. White, the sureties on the bond of $5000 furnished by Quillen when indicted by a former grand jury on a charge of making false entries in a book of accounts in the comptroller's office. District Judge Fisher issued an alias for Quillen and Smith on the basis of the indictment. It was said that arrangements would be made for making another bond.

Don't Fight; Let Enemies Have Coasts, Says Preparedness foe

Special to the Morning News.

Washington, March 8.—One of the ablest opponents of preparedness in the lower house is John R. Connolly, editor of a little country paper in Kansas. Mr. Connolly says Uncle Sam doesn't need an army or a navy, either. He has a better way to keep the peace. If either or both coasts should be invaded, Mr. Connolly recently declared, the people of the Atlantic coast could retire westward behind the Allegheny mountains and the people of the Pacific coast could retire behind the Sierra Nevada mountains, and there in the great central basin, the richest country God ever made, they could all live out their lives in peace and security.

Because of his expert knowledge of naval affairs, gained as editor of the Colby (Kansas) Free Press, Mr. Connolly was made a member of the house naval affairs committee. When Admiral Grant, in command of the submarine flotilla, appeared recently as a witness before the committee, Mr. Connolly had several questions to ask during the cross-examination. Here is one of them:

"Admiral Grant, there has been a great deal of talk about torpedo boat destroyers. Are they vessels to destroy torpedoes?"
Another noted pacifist is Thomas S. Butler, who has represented the Eighteenth Pennsylvania district for eighteen years. Recently he got an address from the navy on the stand and utterly floored him with this question: "Admiral, wouldn't we be in better shape if we stopped building warships altogether and put our money into powers that we are so big and strong that we are not afraid?"
But in many respects the shrewdest of them all is Oscar Callaway, a congressman from Texas. He used to be prosecuting attorney for Comanche county, and he has no mercy on people who wear brass buttons.
Oscar is strong for submarines and the plain people. He does not believe in battleships or snobs in uniform. He got in an awful wallop recently on Rear Admiral Griffin, chief engineer of the navy.

Mr. Callaway—The number of accidents we have had in submarines on account of chlorine gas has been almost incomprehensible, Admiral!
Admiral Griffin—Yes; but of course, any accident that would result in loss of life is one to which we would have to give very serious consideration.
Mr. Callaway—Your accidents from chlorine gas have not been as fatal as those from unloaded guns, have they, Admiral?

Mad Dogs, Not Cows, Killed at Mt. Calm

Special to the Morning News.

Mt. Calm, March 8.—The statement appearing in the Morning News of yesterday to the effect that five cows on the Kirkland ranch had been killed, from being bitten by a mad dog, is incorrect and gained circulation from the fact that seven dogs on the ranch were bitten by a mad dog. They were killed, along with the mad dog, all as the mad dog was killed at the time he attacked the other dogs at the ranch house. While there have been several mad dogs in the community, all of them have been killed, so far as is known, and no further trouble is anticipated.

Nothing equals "California Syrup of Figs" for children's ills: give a teaspoonful, and in a few hours all the foul waste, sour bile and fermenting
food which is clogged in the bowels passes out of the system, and you have a well and playful child again.
All children love this harmless, delicious "fruit laxative," and it never fails to effect a good "inside" cleaning. Directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are plainly
on the bottle.

Keep it handy in your home. A little often today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then look and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."

ARMY RESERVE OF CIVILIANS HIS PLAN

Martin B. Madden.

Provisions for the creation of a civilian reserve along lines suggested by Congressman Madden of Chicago have been inserted in the house army bill. These paragraphs provide for the creation of a reserve consisting of persons who have had special training or experience in the various arts or industries upon which the signal, ordnance, and quartermaster corps of the army would have to depend in time of war.

SAYS DYSPEPTICS NEED MORE MAGNESIA

Take a Little Bismarck Magnesia in Hot Water Right After Eating And Enjoy Big Meals in Comfort Without Distress.

If people who suffer more or less constantly after meals with acid indigestion
or dyspepsia, sourness, gas, bloating, etc., would make a practice of taking a teaspoonful of Bismarck Magnesia in a quarter glass of hot water right after eating they would then and there put an end to all fear of stomach trouble.
For Bismarck Magnesia mixing with the digesting food and stomach juices promptly and effectively sweetens all excess acid, prevents fermentation and souring of food and restores a normal
and painless digestion that possibly you have not experienced before in years.
Get a few ounces of the pure Bismarck
Magnesia from the nearest drug store and try it and see. It is harmless to the stomach and inexpensive. For stomach purposes be sure to get Bismarck Magnesia rather than Magnesia in other forms as this is specially prepared for neutralizing stomach acidity.

won over Robinson in a spelling bee contest Friday night March 3. Miss Ethel Arnold proved the champion speller in this contest. Both schools are to be

this line, quite a number showing two schools stand at a par now. Who will win next time out of three?

Too Poor to Have Intangible Assets, Is I. & G. N. Claim

By the Associated Press.
Houston, March 8.—Testimony that the International and Great Northern railroad is in such a poor condition that it is impossible for it to have any intangible assets was given by W. J.
Werner, auditor, today in the injunction proceedings of the railroad to prevent Harris county from collecting the so-called intangible tax. He defined intangible assets as a valuation above the physical value of the property. A recess was taken to allow counsel for the railroad to appear before the supreme court today in another case.

Warehouse Men Meet Today.
Special to the Morning News.
Austin, March 8.—Representatives of the state warehouse men and marketing associations, at the call of the managers of the state warehouse department, will assemble in the hall of the house of representatives at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning for the purpose of formulating an organization to put into effect the co-operative marketing features of the permanent warehouse act; to aid the different local marketing associations in carrying out the purposes of the marketing law of the state by keeping in close touch with them and reduce the expense between the producer and consumer, and to especially look into the questions of finance, insurance,
transportation and all other incidental expense levied on farm, ranch and orchard products from the time they leave the producer until they reach the consumer. The meeting will continue through Saturday.

School Elections Same Date.
Special to the Morning News.
Austin, March 8.—State Superintendent of public instruction, W. F. Doughty, has ruled and he is sustained by the attorney general that it was clearly the intent of the Thirty-fourth legislature
to provide a uniform date for electing school trustees, that date being the first Saturday in April of each year. The public school law as it appears in printed form fixes the date for holding the election of county school trustees on the first Tuesday of April. This, State Superintendent Doughty said, is the result of a typographical error in enrolling the bill. He points out that the bill provides that the election of county school trustees shall be held at the same time
as the election of trustees of common school districts, which is held on the first Saturday of April.

Prairie Fire Near Valley Mills.
Special to the Morning News.
Valley Mills, March 8.—Fire, breaking out on the prairie several miles northwest of this city late Monday afternoon, soon spread towards town and has done considerable damage in the brush and cedar breaks on the John Sears place in the mountains across the Bosque river. The high wind blowing yesterday and the burning of the brush added strength to the flames and the firefighters have been unable to check its march southward. The wind has settled and at noon today the fire was under control and no further danger is expected unless the breeze changes to the south. The fire has burned over several hundred acres of ground and destroyed many cords of wood and cedar. No livestock perished in the flames.

Would Extradite from Uruguay.
By the Associated Press.
Austin, March 8.—Requisitions were issued today by the governor for extradition of Clarence K. McGoun and John Morgan, now under arrest at Montevideo,
Uruguay, and wanted at Dallas.
McGoun is charged by indictment with felony, embezzlement, and Morgan
by indictment as an accomplice to felony indictment. These requisitions were made by the governor to the state department at Washington and he recommended that W. R. Moffet be named as agent for the state of Texas. It was at the request of M. T. Lively, county attorney of Dallas county, that these requisitions were made.

Pastures Burned at Carbon.
Special to the Morning News.
Carbon, March 8.—Some of the ranchmen in this vicinity have had the misfortune to have their pastures burned off. Some one let fire get started in one of the pastures south
of town last Sunday, and it burned
some all day Sunday. Monday there was a very heavy rain, but the wind
from the north and it made a great fire.
T. S. Allen lost his dwelling, barn and all of the feed he had in his barn.
The country is getting dry in some places and most of the farmers would like to see a good rain, but the wind is still in the north and it seems that it will be dry for some days yet.

Former Postmaster on Trial.
By the Associated Press.
Houston, March 8.—Hans Boedeker, former postmaster at Hochheim, De Witt county, went to trial today in federal court for the third time, charged with embezzling $463.53 from his own postoffice in February, 1914. His wife and baby were constantly at his side. Mis-trials resulted at two former hearings.

Change in Railroad Circles Rumored.
By the Associated Press.
Houston, March 8.—A report in local railroad circles is that E. J. Pearson, vice president of the Texas & Pacific railway, has resigned to take a position with an eastern road, and that C. R. Gray, president of the Western Maryland road,
will succeed him. Mr. Pearson is now in New York.

ety of the Christian church met with

"Pistol Toters"

Trying to trade rings for drinks got W. Crockett, negro, into trouble. While some of his actions read like they were drawn from the Arabian Nights, of which, incidentally, there were one hundred and one, and his grip looked like he was attempting to put on an amateur "101 Ranch" show, he probably had no idea that they would draw him fines of $101, but that is just what they did. With an hour in jail, and the costs added, at that, Sheriff S. S. Fleming went out to Leroy after Crockett Monday night. It is charged that he helped himself to three rings from the store of Lee Clements and tried to dispose of them at a saloon. When his grip was searched, a revolver and some brass knuckles were found. Crockett pleaded guilty yesterday to having the revolver and to theft, his fines aggregating $101. The charge of having the knuckles was dismissed. Yesterday was a bad day for "pistol toters" in the county court. Judge George N. Denton also had Jesus Hernandez and Julian Germonde to deal with for like offenses, giving each of them thirty days in jail.

BUILD GREAT NAVY,
SHAW ADVISES U. S.

George Bernard Shaw.

"Build thirty-two dreadnaughts instead of sixteen; spend $2,000,000,000 on your armament program, instead of $1,000,000,000." This is George Bernard Shaw's advice to the United States, contained in a letter to the American intercollegiate Socialist society. Mr. Shaw sees in America's pacifism the hope of the world. "That," he adds, "is because America is powerful, as well as pacific that she will be listened to."

Interest in the Turner street revival was greatly increased yesterday and last night. There were four professions at the evening services, with still large numbers manifesting much interest in the question of religion. For the information of the people of every section of the city who are interested in and praying for this meeting and the situation in East Waco, it may be said that the meeting is of gradual but sure progress and growth. It is the expectation of the leaders and workers in the meeting to go on from service to service until a far-reaching victory is won for the cause of the Master. The prayers and co-operation of all Christian people is asked for in the meeting. Rev. W. B. Holland preaches daily at 10 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

Taking Tonics, and Built up on Right Food.

The mistake is frequently made of trying to build up a worn-out nervous system on so-called tonics. New material from which to rebuild used up tissue cells is what should be supplied, and this can be obtained only from proper food.

"I found myself on the verge of a nervous collapse, due to overwork and study, and to illness in the family," writes a Wisconsin woman. "My friends became alarmed because I grew pale and thin and could not sleep nights. I took various tonics, but their effects were off shortly after I stopped taking them. My food did not seem to nourish me. "Reading of Grape-Nuts, I determined to stop the tonics and see what a change of diet would do. I ate Grape-Nuts four times a day with cream, and drank milk also, went to bed early after eating a dish of Grape-Nuts. "In about two weeks I was sleeping soundly. In a short time gained weight and felt like a different woman. Grape-Nuts and fresh air were the only agents used to accomplish the happy results." There's a Reason. Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

Collision of Auto
With Pole May Be Fatal to Driver

James R. Gatlin, 19 years old, probably will die from injuries received yesterday morning when an automobile he was driving collided with a telephone pole at Eighteenth and Barnard streets. Gatlin was employed as driver of an auto delivery truck operated by the Waco Transfer company and it was this truck which figured in the accident. After getting beyond the driver's control at a sharp turn, the automobile ran for half a block astride the curb before colliding with the telephone pole. Gatlin's skull was fractured by impact with the pole. He was taken to Providence sanitarium where it was announced last night that his condition was serious.

No Child Is "Naturally Lazy"

YOUR little boy or girl isn't listless, apathetic, sleepy at the wrong time—naturally.

Something is wrong.

That something is usually constipation.

Constipation is one of the greatest dangers of childhood—not only in childhood but because it is an insidious habit that grows and becomes chronic as the years go on.

Do not use cathartics and strong purges for children, except on doctor's orders. They weaken the natural process of evacuation and are dangerously habit-forming.

Nujol, a pure white mineral oil, is the medically endorsed remedy for constipation. Nujol acts solely as a lubricant oiling the intestinal tract, softening the contents, and thus promoting easy normal evacuations. It is not absorbed by the system, and may be taken in any quantity without harm. Hence it is especially recommended for children.

Nujol is colorless, odorless and tasteless. Over 42,000 doctors already have asked us to send them samples of Nujol.

Write for booklet, "The Rational Treatment of Constipation." If your druggist hasn't it, we will send a pint bottle of Nujol prepaid to any point in the United States on receipt of 75c—money order or stamps.

Letters from the People

Function of the Home in Baby Week.

To the Waco Morning News: We are taught that the human body is the temple of the soul; therefore we shouldn't abuse it or neglect to keep this structure in repair, for some day we will be called upon to give an account of our stewardship. Animal instinct was bestowed upon all mothers for the protection of their young. The animals of the higher order having reason, also, of course, are abundantly qualified to care for their own and I hardly think it necessary for our national government to take action along this line. Statistics of death under one year are appalling. I can't believe it is a lack of intelligence. Carelessness and neglect must be largely responsible. Any common-sense mother knows only liquid food should be given the child for first year. The same food should be given the second year with an application of sunshine, water internally, some water externally and plenty of sleep.

Don't pull them out to picture shows three times a week or oftener, or break down their nervous system for want of rest. It's bad enough for those of mature years to commit this blunder, much less to start the little one out in life handicapped in that way. Place the responsibility where it belongs—on the parents. When you deprive an individual of his rightful responsibility you take from him the best asset of his nature and dwarf his usefulness. Isn't there danger of this sentiment (to help) exceeding our better judgment? Isn't it a fact that the United States government has retarded the development of the Indians in taking them under guardianship? The men, as a rule, who have made history in the earlier days of our republic, were the boys who forged to the front and wrote their names high in the temple of fame with probably no help and little encouragement. They knew nothing of Y. M. C. A. lectures, or outings in well equipped camps, or banquets and other things of modern invention. If the boy cannot attend day school give him night school with a prospect of a business course in a business college, with daily contact with the world coupled with ambition and good principles, and he is on the high road to usefulness.

LEONARD OUTFIGHTS DUNDEE.

By the Associated Press.
New York, March 8.—Bennie Leonard out-fought Johnny Dundee in a ten-round bout here tonight, thus becoming eligible for a match with Freddie Welsh for the lightweight championship. Dundee took the honors of the first and third rounds, but after that Leonard had it virtually his own way. In the eighth round he sent a right hook to Dundee's jaw and scored a knockdown. Dundee was on his feet again in a moment, however. Leonard weighed 131½ and Dundee 123 pounds.

JAMES AND BITTLE ARRIVE IN CAMP

NAVIGATOR CREW FOR 1916 SEASON COMPLETED WHEN OUT-FIELDERS COME IN.

Games With New York Giants Saturday and Sunday Will be Interesting.

Avast, all hands: port your helm; shiver your timbers, or whatever the correct nautical expression is, for the Navigator crew for 1916 is complete.

Up to supper time last night Manager Ellis Hardy had but one lone outfielder in his camp, Norman Coyle, the doughty little star who keeps guard out back of second base. But a late train last night brought in both Jesse James, the swastick artist, and also C. D. Bittle, the new acquisition who set the Virginia league afire last season.

Another short practice game was indulged in yesterday afternoon. Mr. Hardy is not working his charges hard, preferring that they take things easy at first. Jacobs, the new catcher, appeared in uniform here for the first time and made a favorable impression. Aside from a little stiffness, every man on the squad seems to be in good shape.

Interest locally is centering now on the games with the New York Giants Saturday and Sunday. McGraw intends to send down his second team mostly, but the chances are that if Waco trounces them Saturday some of the regulars will be sent to their assistance on Sunday, for McGraw does not like to lose.

The new grandstand is attracting favorable comment from all who have seen it and it is expected that the fans will turn out in large numbers for the two games with the Giants, as they will also be given an opportunity to sit for the first time in the fancy new structure.

Huaco Club Bowling Tournament Ends

The Huaco bowling tournament closed last night, with team No. 2 defeating No. 3 two out of three games.

Capt. J. H. Lockwood, of the winning team is now classed as the real expert in judging latent bowling qualities in a bunch of so-called "dubs." In fact, Clint Padgett, captain of one of the teams, felt so sorry for the Lockwood team that he offered one of his "class A" bowlers to make the games more interesting.

Charles Link, chairman of the bowling committee, also had great pity for the unfortunate team and offered to make the team stronger by joining it himself.

Did Lockwood weaken in his choice?

He did not.

Did his team win the tournament? It did—thirteen games won and two lost.

No doubt the Messrs. Padgett, Link et al will be on hand with their allies for the result and issue another challenge. But Mr. Lockwood is authority for the statement that all challengers will have to get out and whip some good team before he can afford to risk his justly earned title and reputation on their afore-said "class A" teams.

High School Talking Mineral Wells Game on Saturday Night

All the basketball talk that can be heard at the Waco high school these days is of the basketball game Saturday night with Mineral Wells for the state championship.

Mineral Wells comes here with a record of having defeated Dallas and North Fort Worth, while Waco has taken the measure of Dallas, Austin and everything in this portion of the state, while Austin cleaned up everything in South Texas.

Coach Smith declared last night that the Waco boys were all prepared to play the games of their lives. It is probable that the game will be about the fastest of the season as both teams ran almost as strong as the best college teams of the state.

THEATRES

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

"The Garden of Allah."
Robert Hichens, the author of the famous and gigantic play of the desert, "The Garden of Allah," which will be the attraction at the Auditorium matinee and tonight, is a gallant friend of modern womanhood. He still sees in her the ideal self-sacrificing mother, and when he admits her failings which he rarely, he speaks gently and apologetically, and in an understanding of her underlying goodness of heart, excuses her surface mannerisms. It is good to find a writer, in this age, of Bernard Shaw philosophy, who clings to the old-fashioned ideal of woman, and who considers she is still with us. Such a writer turns out readable literature one can enjoy without the bitter taste left after the sharp wit of Shaw and his votaries. Mr. Hichens never did write for the mass, but the discriminating few. All his productions show a thoughtful mind and a keen insight into human frailties assembled, and also a broadness of perception and charity of spirit that keeps his nature unsullied amidst the din of many of his fellow writers, who criticize the women of today so severely.

HIPPODROME.

"The Last Act."

The presentation of a typical boarding house for theatrical folks in New York Times Square region is a feature of the new Triangle Kay-Bee picture, "The Last Act," in which Bessie Barriscale is starred and which will play at the Hippodrome today. In the earlier scenes of this play Miss Barriscale is seen as an ambitious but unsuccessful young actress whose weary feet have tramped the hard stones of Broadway for many a day, as she looked for work. At night there is the flavorless boarding house dinner, followed by the cold comfort of the hall bedroom on the top floor. The types of the theatrical world are seen in the various episodes that transpire in the boarding house. There are the young people full of hope and looking forward to "careers," there are the older thespians, who have toiled season after season, and find themselves in their declining years unwanted and staring poverty in the face. One good friend the discouraged little heroine finds in the wretched little slavey who carries a warm heart under her slatternly dress and clumsily offers her sympathy in little acts of kindness. In the later scenes of the picture, when the actress has found fame and fortune, there comes again the slavey, a drudge no longer, but elevated to the position of a lady's maid, and doing her part bravely in solving the problem that confronts her mistress that furnishes the climax to the play.

Bessie Barriscale, always a delicate, subtle artist, plays this role of Ethel Duprey, the young actress, with a wealth of talent and understanding and proves in a natural way that a woman of true character will avert a tragedy in the lives of others even when in doing so she destroys the chances for her own happiness. There is a situation in the last act of "The Last Act" to try the emotional powers of any actor, and it is here that Miss Barriscale proves her ability. Clara Williams, Harry Keenan, Robert McKim and May Allen are in her support. "The Last Act" will show at the Hippodrome today only.

Classical Club Is Entertained by High School Students

The Classical club was entertained yesterday afternoon by the Latin pupils of the Waco high school. Inability of Baylor members to attend next week, owing to examinations, caused the idea of March program to be given in advance. The program was arranged by Mrs. Marian Butler, Misses Rawlins, McLaran and Forsgard of the school faculty.

Following was the program:
Song, Gaudeamus Academicus, Latin Pupils
Greeting (in verse), written by Miss Carline Alexander, read by Miss Polly Smith.

Oration, Julius Caesar
Pipes of Pan (Dance)
Pipes of Pan (Dance)

Boynton.

Anthony's Oration Over Caesar's Body
All performed their parts in an admirable manner. Little Goldie Lazarus in her dance, as usual, won great applause.

Frank Peyton made a ghost noise to disturb a school boy in his dream
over his Caesar lesson.
Blake Johnson, dressed in a Roman toga, made quite an impression on his audience as an orator.

After a brief business session the club viewed charts made by the pupils to show the "practical value" of the study of Latin. These deserve to be studied by parents and teachers.
A social hour in the Domestic Science department brought to a close a pleasant, profitable afternoon, devoted to the interests of the classics.

BABY WEEK CLOSED BY THRD MEETING

EAST WACO PUBLIC SCHOOL
MOTHERS.

COMPACT RULES DISTRIBUTED

Essentials to Proper Care for Babies
During First Year of Life Explained by Physicians.

Waco's part of the National Baby Week program was brought to an end
yesterday afternoon with several addresses
given at the East Waco public school.
The program was similar to the one given Monday afternoon at the Bell's Hill school and the one of Tuesday afternoon at the Edgefield Methodist church. It deals with problems mothers have to face in rearing their child. Many questions of vital importance to the mother were brought out by the speakers of the afternoon.

The talk on the care of the teeth was given by Dr. J. L. Hall, dentist; the talk on the care of the eye, ear, nose
and throat, was given by Dr. C. P. Shenck, and Dr. S. C. Gage delivered an address on the proper care of the baby in its infancy. Papers were read by Mrs. Ed Smith and Mrs. J. C. Houser.
Among those present at the program
yesterday were Mrs. A. L. Goldshaw of the Jewish council; Mrs. E. M. Dotson, president of the City Federation of Women's clubs, the organization which has charge of the Waco program; Miss Pettit of the Evangelical Home, and Mrs. S. J. Leonard of the committee which prepared the program during the Better Baby Week.

Charts were exhibited which carried valuable information in regard to the proper treatment of the child should receive. One of which is given below:
Cleanliness is essential to the health of a child. Wash your children with cool water morning and night or often on hot days.

The child should sleep by itself, and be put to bed at regular hours. The bed clothes should be light.

Overfeeding does harm. Feed an infant
a month or two old every two hours. Feed an infant over six months old six times in twenty-four hours. Be sure and occasionally give the baby
a drink of pure water. Babies are thirsty as well as grown persons, and it is of the utmost importance for the mother to keep the child
well supplied with clean, clear water.

Do not dose your child with soothing syrups or other patent medicines. Thousands of children die yearly from these poisons.

Keep your rooms cool and well ventilated,
and do not allow any bad smell to come from the sinks or water closets.

Never neglect looseness of the bowels in an infant. More babies perish from cholera infantum, diarrhea, and dysentery than from any other cause.
Imperial Granum, prepared without milk
according to the special directions how to use each package, controls the irregular movements of the bowels of both babies and adults and it is well to always keep a package
in the house in case of emergency.

When the baby is cross and irritable in the hot weather, change of scene will often do much good. Sunshine is as necessary for children as for plants. Take the child out in the fresh very day, except at midday in very hot weather, and keep the room clean and sunny, keep a flannel band around the body, not too tight.
Vest often a baby's cries can be relieved by

Large Crowd Hears
Dr. Frank Wright at First Presbyterian

There was a large audience at the First Presbyterian church Wednesday evening to hear Dr. Wright, but it was composed mainly of church members and there were few strangers. Dr. Wright's address was on "The Christian's Duty to the World."

Dr. Wright took his text from Proverbs 28:13, "He that covereth his sins shall not prosper; but whoso confesseth them and forsaketh them shall have mercy." He preached a powerful sermon on the effects of sin, the shame and remorse, and retribution which follow and then in keeping with the contrast in the verse of his text, he showed how God will have mercy on those who confess and forsake their sins. In beautiful imagery, he painted the pleasures of Christian life and the sweet hopes of life to come.

This afternoon at 3:15 Dr. Wright will talk on "Fitness for Heaven" and this evening at 7:30 the topic will be "A Cause of Infidelity." There will be special music at both services.

The ladies will hold prayer meetings at 10:30 in several neighborhoods.

Off to school, full of Vim and "Pep" Don't cram their little "tummies" with greasy meats, starchy potatoes or other indigestible foods. One or two Shredded Wheat Biscuits with hot milk make a warm, nourishing meal that supplies all the material needed for their growing bodies. The perfect food to study on, to grow on, to play on. The crispness of the shreds encourages thorough chewing, which develops sound teeth and healthy gums. Being ready-cooked it is so easy to prepare a warm, nourishing meal with Shredded Wheat in a few moments —no kitchen worry or work.

STATE CONVENTION Y. M. C. A. HELD HERE

SESSIONS BROUGHT TO CLIMAX
NIGHT.

NEW YORK MAN IS SPEAKER

Results Obtained from State Association
Department Shown in Reports.

More than 150 men listened eagerly last night to hear the message brought to them by Fred B. Smith of New York City, one of the nation's greatest Christian orators, whose address was the climax and closing feature of the thirty-first annual convention of the Young Men's Christian association of Texas, which opened yesterday morning in this city. Problems that face
the young men of the nineteenth century
were discussed last night by Mr.
Smith in his lecture which was delivered at the convention banquet held in the gold room of the Raleigh hotel, the convention headquarters.

Preceding the principal address of the program three ten-minute talks were made by the men in charge of the state department of the Young Men's Christian association in which was included a condensed report of the work accomplished by this department in the last few years. H. H. Simmons introduced the toastmaster for the occasion, Rhodes S. Baker, a Dallas attorney, after which L. A. Coulter, state secretary, delivered the first talk
in regard to the state work.

Mr. Coulter said that the state department was maintained to assist the various Texas points to organize efficient and up-to-date associations, and to upbuild associations already in the field.
As one of the principal things accomplished by the co-operation with the state department was relieving the following associations of their indebtedness:
Ennis, Palestine, Waco, Temple, Mart, Cleburne, San Antonio Railroad association, Houston, Beaumont, Fort Worth, Corsicana, University of Texas association, Austin College, Station and the Texas Agricultural and Mechanical College association.

Student Work Progressing.

State Boys' Secretary John L. Hunter declared in his talk that the state department was turning its attention to the high school boys, organizing
them into groups for character education, cleaner scholarships, cleaner living and cleaner speech. He read letters from groups that had been organized through the state boys' department which showed considerable progress was being made. He said that this department was now taking into consideration an annual summer state camp for the school association members, to be held near Georgetown at which time lectures will be given by some of the state's best platform leaders.

Contributions being made by the students
organized twelve four college associations,
all of which are doing some kind of active association work looking forward to improving the lives of the college students and preparing them for manhood.

Dr. W. J. Battle Is Speaker.

Dr. W. J. Battle, president of the University of Texas, gave a short address in which he stated that the Young Men's Christian association presents the best possible way in which to help the Christian element into the lives of young men. He said that the nation faced many hard problems
today, many of which would have to be solved through the doctrine of Jesus Christ. That the European war had not in any manner shown that Christianity was failing, was declared by Dr. Battle, but that it was to prove that civilization had not learned Christianity.

"Deep Significance in Y. M. C. A.
Work" was the subject of Mr. Smith.
He opened his address by saying that he would point out accomplishments of the Young Men's Christian association and that the work of an association should not alone be judged by the number of conversions each year. His address dealt with the deeper things of association work and showed how it paved the way for honest, clean Christian manhood.

Although not connected with the Young Men's Christian association as an officer, Mr. Smith is known nationwide for this kind of work. He has twice before appeared before Waco audiences.
During the last sixteen years he has traveled the average of 50, miles annually, most of which was on lecture tours. He has been around the world three times. He handled his subject last night in an able manner
and was well received by his audience.

Points Out Important Results.

The preservation of boyhood through manhood was pointed out by Mr.
Smith as one of the principal results of the association work. He advocated keeping the young men of the nation
from ever sowing their wild oats.
He scored the pastors who hold up for the congregation's model the man who once fallen into the lowest pits, had been won back for Christianity.
He declared that manhood should be so trained that it would avoid the "winning back" but would be on the proper track from manhood. Statistics from seventy-six cities of the United States, according to Mr. Smith, showed that out of every one hundred students that start out on a life of shame, only four and one-sixth are ever again converted.

Declaring that individualism was dead, that a consolidation of the "various creeds might bring about wonderful results, and that the question of world-wide peace would no doubt be brought before the world within the next two years, he pictured the world powers now at war after fighting among themselves, weakened to the quick by their boyhood and manhood
who forgot the spirit of Christianity and engaged in a bloody war. He said that the basis of the world peace would not be brought about by kings and emperors, but by him who taught the nation "peace on earth, good will to ward men."

Confessed Wife Beater Gets 30 Days in Jail

After the state had introduced its evidence, H. L. Riggs, charged with beating his wife, entered a plea of guilty to aggravated assault and battery
yesterday afternoon in the county court, and was given thirty days in jail.

The case was a remarkable one in that the wife did not testify against her husband and not a witness saw blow struck. Riggs had entered a plea of not guilty, but after Assistant County Attorney John B. Atkinson had completed his case, concluded there was no use of fighting further.

It was charged by the state that on January 20 Riggs went to where he and his wife were rooming on South Fifth street, locked himself in the room with her and beat her severely

about the body with a broken hair brush. Other people in the house heard the noise that sounded like blows, and after a time knocked at the door.

When Riggs opened the door, it is declared that his wife ran out on the gallery and picking up a solution that had been prepared to doctor a horse's foot, drank it. Physicians were called and succeeded in saving her life, although they testified the liquid was poisonous. They also testified as to bruises on her body.

Miss Young to Read Tonight for Working Boys

Miss Berenice Young, whose readings always win the applause of the members of the Working Boys' club, will contribute some humorous character sketches to the program of the weekly meeting
of that organization tonight.

M. E. Yinger Jr. will sing for the boys, also.
At the meeting of the club next week
there will be a special anniversary program commemorating the seventh anniversary of the club, and a number of the original members of the organization are expected to be on hand to give brief reminders.
